

Emily Malcolm bio

Emily Malcolm is a graduate of Old Dominion University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Human Services. Mrs. Malcolm began her human services career as an intern for Safeshome Systems Domestic Violence Shelter in Covington, Virginia in the fall of 2013. In 2014, she completed a 5-month internship with the Highland County Department of Social Services and by the fall of 2014, she was hired by the Department as a full-time Family Services Specialist. During this time, she was the sole Family Services worker for the Department. She was responsible for all Adult Protective Services, Child Protective Services, Foster Care, and Adoption cases and she administered the View and Child Care programs for the agency. At the end of 2019, Mrs. Malcolm was appointed interim agency Director of the Highland County Department of Social services. Mrs. Malcolm was hired as the Director for the Highland County Department of Social Services on March 1, 2020.