

Nate Riddle bio

Dr. Nate Riddle was appointed to the Valley CSB Board by the City of Staunton. Professionally, he serves as Executive Director of Valley Children's Advocacy Center, where he provides executive leadership for the organization's mission, operations, governance, and strategic direction. Nate holds a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, a Master of Public Administration from Regent University, and a Doctor of Public Administration from California Baptist University. His professional interests include nonprofit and public governance, strategic management, systems thinking, and behavioral public administration.