

Jeremy Leach bio

Dr. Jeremy S. Leach holds a Ph.D. in cognitive psychology and completed post-doctoral study in brain health and trauma through the Universities of Central Florida and Florida State, respectively. Dr. Leach completed post-doctoral clinical fellowship at SAPHS in Minnesota. Dr. Leach is a Board-Certified Cognitive Specialist and member of the American Psychological Association, American Academy of Neurology, American Association for Geriatric Psychiatry, Virginia Association for Psychological Science, and National Association of Cognitive-Behavioral Therapists. Dr. Leach is dually licensed as a long-term care administrator and preceptor through the Virginia Board of Long-Term Care Administrators, Department of Health Professions. The thrust of Dr. Leach's research has been centered upon cognitive impairment and caregiving, and well as design and implementation of dementia programming in long-term care.

Dr. Leach resides in Staunton with wife, Karen, and son, Jackson.