

Frank Pyanoe

Frank Pyanoe (He/Him): Mr. Pyanoe is retired from the Virginia State Police, after serving the Commonwealth for 37 years. He began his career as a state trooper in the Shenandoah Valley, assigned to Rockbridge County, Augusta County and as Area Commander of the state police offices in Harrisonburg and Staunton. In 2018 Mr. Pyanoe was promoted to lieutenant/ Assistant Director of the Office of Internal Affairs, based at the VSP Administrative Headquarters in Richmond. He received extensive training and certification in CISM and CIT.

Mr. Pyanoe serves on the Board for Staunton Augusta Rescue Squad. He served in the past on the Board of Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Staunton/ Waynesboro.

He is a 1985 graduate of UVA, Wise, with a BA in Business and Public Administration. In 2008, he received a graduate Certificate in Leadership and Organization Development from UVA.

Mr. Pyanoe retired in 2022 and he and his wife enjoy their free time on their small farm outside of Staunton where they care for their horses. He has three adult children.